Big Tree Contest

The Medina County Soil & Water Conservation District (SWCD) and the Medina County Gazette will sponsor the Eighteenth Annual Big Tree Contest. In this contest, entrants submit a nomination for a predetermined type of tree they believe might be the largest in the county. Qualified personnel will measure the trees to determine the winner.

The contest procedures are based on requirements of the Ohio Division of Forestry, since winners may be submitted for the Ohio Big Tree Program as a state champion. You may not have a state champion, but the tree could be Medina County's champ.

- ❖ 2021 big tree will be the Honey Locust (Gleditsia triacanthos).
- ❖ The tree nominated must be located in Medina County.
- ❖ A tree may be nominated only once. The first nomination received will be entered in the contest.
- ❖ The tree does not have to be on the property of the nominator, however, permission of the landowner must be obtained prior to nomination.
- ❖ The nomination form must be submitted to the SWCD office by August 14, 2021.
- ❖ Qualified District personnel will measure all nominated trees. The decision of the District will be final.
- ❖ Prizes will be awarded at the District's annual meeting in the fall.
- ❖ Prizes will include a $24.00 coupon to be used for the District's 2022 tree seedling sale (no other cash value) and a plaque with tree's statistics.

For an entry form to nominate your winning Honey Locust tree.
